

Duration of Trainings

Varies from one day to one week.

Trainers

NCMNH has a group of highly qualified professionals. They are specialists in the field of obstetrics and gynecology, various aspects of reproductive health and professional education. The training team comprises Master trainers and trained trainers.

Who Can Attend

All cadres of Skilled Birth Attendants i.e. Doctors, Nurses, Midwives, Health Visitors, Counselors, Teachers, Social Workers, Psychologists, Health Educators, and other health professionals interested in advancing their professional knowledge and skills.

Fee & Credits

There is a fee for service. Credits will be awarded according to Pakistan Medical & Dental Council (PMDC) regulations.

Certification

Certificates for attending theory based courses are awarded to all participants. Certificates for Skill Proficiency are awarded after the participant acquires the expected level of competence through working in real life situation.

How to reach Us

For further information contact NCMNH Office.

National Committee for Maternal & Neonatal Health

NCMNH House
36-C , Street 14 off
Khayaban e Shamsheer
D.H.A Phase 5, Karachi-75500
Tel:92-21-3534197-8
Email: info@ncmnh.org.pk
Website: ncmnh.org.pk
Skype: ncmnhpk

Capacity Building of Health Professionals

National Committee for Maternal and Neonatal Health (NCMNH)

Is the official technical and advisory arm of the Ministry of National Health Services, Regulations and Coordination, for maternal and neonatal health, population and development issues. One of its mandates is "Capacity Building". It offers a range of courses on Maternal, Neonatal and Reproductive Health issues.

Mission

NCMNH is a center of excellence for updating knowledge and skills of various categories of health care providers.

About Trainings

NCMNH offers tailored courses to address needs of the individuals/groups.

Trainings Offered by NCMNH and its Partners

1. Training of Trainers (ToTs) to teach various job specific aspects of Reproductive Health
2. Emergency Obstetrics and Neonatal Care (EmONC)
3. Misoprostol for prevention and treatment of Post Partum Hemorrhage (PPH) and for Post Abortion Care (PAC)
4. Emergency management of PPH.
5. Monitoring progress of labor through use of Partogram and management of Prolonged / Obstructed Labor
6. Prevention & Treatment of Eclampsia
7. Instrumental Delivery & Caesarean Section
8. Updates on Family Planning

9. Post Partum Family Planning (PPFP) focusing on Post Partum Intra Uterine Contraceptive Device (PPIUCD) Insertion
10. Infection Prevention
11. Woman Centered Post Abortion Care (PAC) and use of Manual Vacuum Aspiration (MVA) to replace D&E
12. Values Clarification and Attitudes Transformation (VCAT) to meet Reproductive Health needs of clients
13. Basic Obstetrical Ultrasound
14. Neonatal Resuscitation and management of Newborn Care
15. Curriculum Development

16. Principles and Methods of Teaching, Training & Evaluation of Outcome
17. Supervision, Mentoring, Monitoring and Evaluation

NCMNH Skills Laboratory

It is a state of the art facility and has been designed and equipped with modern job aids to provide simulated skill and practice. It offers opportunities for the learners to update and improve upon essentials of Maternal, Neonatal and Reproductive Health including surgical techniques, obstetrical and gynecological clinical skills. The Skills Lab provides an inspiring environment where trainees learn and apply cognitive and psycho motor skills.